POLICY

The Technical College System of Georgia is the agency approved by the GED® Testing Service and the Educational Testing Service to establish both GED® Testing Centers and HiSET® Testing Centers in Georgia. In order to become a testing center, an entity must meet the following eligibility requirements, in addition to demonstrating a documented need for a testing center in its county or service delivery area.

The entity must be a:

- a. State Agency;
- b. Local Education Authority;
- c. Public Postsecondary Institution; or
- d. A Public Library System.

The Office of Adult Education will develop the process for establishing a testing center.
