Last Reviewed: October 12, 2022.

Adopted: February 3, 2022.

POLICY:

The Technical College System of Georgia (TCSG) Department of Public Safety guides the twenty-two (22) constituent institutions in the areas of campus safety and security; emergency management; Clery compliance; Behavioral Intervention Teams; mutual aid agreements; continuity planning; and, law enforcement accreditation, in addition to the regular assessment of each. The office also serves as a direct liaison between the institutions and local, state, federal, and private agency counterparts. This collaboration enhances strategic planning within the Technical College System and external agencies. These efforts ensure that the Technical College System and its institutions are better prepared to respond to critical incidents. The Chief of Police and/ or Director of TCSG DPS is the Chief law enforcement office for the Technical College System of Georgia, maintaining the administration of all areas described herein.
